

Limited spots available

Participation in the training session is only valid for team.

Competition disclaimer

All eligible entries received during the submission period will be gathered into a database at the end of the submission period. A winner will be chosen at random.

The competition winner will be notified with details of the training session details.

Each eligible entry is responsible for monitoring his or her email accounts and other forms of communication for training session details.

Starfinda is not liable for winners failing to receive emails due to spam, junk e-mail or for winners failure to provide correct contact information.

If Starfinda is unable to get in contact with the a potential prize winner using the contact information provided at the time of registration that prize winner will forfeit their competition entry.

Starfinda is not responsible for prize winners transport to and from the event, including interstate and international travel costs.

Starfinda is not responsible to for any injuries received to competition winners during the training session.

This competition is for Victorian residents only.